York-Poquoson Sheriff's Office Reports a Bank Robbery

Yorktown, October 12, 2005 – York-Poquoson Sheriff's office was called to the Old Point National Bank located in the 200 block of Kiln Creek Parkway for a bank robbery at approximately 3:53pm. A W/M entered the bank armed with a shotgun and demanded money. He was described as being 5'11" 175 pounds with brown hair and in his 30's. He was wearing a light color hooded sweatshirt, solid color BDU pants, dark sunglasses, and a black and white color bandana over his lower face. No one was injured in the robbery. The suspect left the bank with an undisclosed amount of money and got into a silver or gray color 4 door Toyota or Nissan. A dye pack from the bank exploded in the vehicle. The vehicle left the area on Kiln Creek Parkway going back toward the city of Newport News. This subject should be considered ARMED and DANGEROUS.

Anyone having information on this crime or knowing someone with red dye on them or possibly a burn injury from the dye pack is asked to call the York County Crime Line at 1-888-lock u up. (1-888 -562-5887).
